Man and Woman Reported Killed and Another Seriously Wounded. Special to The Times Dispatch.]

FREDERICKSBURG, VA., July 21.—Parties coming here to-day from King George county stated that at Somerset Beach, a negro summer excursion resort on the Potomac River, a difficulty occurred yesterday, which resulted in two deaths and the serious injury of another man. All of the parties were Washington negroes. Names and full particulars could not be obtained.

A negro man through jealousy shot at another negro man, who was showing attention to a negro woman, a friend of his. He then shot the woman and turned the pistol on himself. The party who did the shooting is reported dead, as also the woman. It is said that the other negro man will recover. There is no telephone or telegraph communication with Somerset Beach.

Heard and Seen in Public Places

R. JOHN W. KERR, a prominent Democrat and business man of Dickenson county, is in the city for a few days, looking after some business matters. He is a member of the board of directors of the Laurel Reformatory, and takes a great deal of interest in the work of that institution. He is a warm friend of his countyman, Capitol Policeman (Long Tom) liaynes, and apent the greater part of yesterday with him.

"Bryan is the greatest Democrat who has ever lived since the days of Andrew Jackson," said Mr. Kerr at Murphy's Hotel list night. "I firmly believe he will be elected this time, because the people are with him. He is their leader and friend, and deserves hie great office to which he aspires."

"Who is ahead for Governor in the Ninth District?" was asked,

"Henry C. Stuart, of course," was the reply, "Mr, Stuart will carry our county easily, and I sim gratified to hear such good reports concerning his candidacy from other sections. I learn that he is strong in Richmond and the Third District, and if he can hold up down this way and run pretty well in the middle of the State, it looks to more the more than a fine sense of cumor, lold Mr. Kerr the when the reports came from Denver that John W. Kerr warmed for Vice-President, he at first thought that it was his old friend, John W. Kerr, of Dicknown, and came near sending him a telegram of congratulation.

State Senator John C. Noel, of Lee county, is in the city, and is registered at the Park of Dickonson, and came near sending him a telegram of congratulation.

State Senator John C. Noel, of Lee county, is in the city, and is registered at the Park Hotel. Senator Noel, who is the grand master of the I. O. O. F. of Virginia, is here on business connected with that order, and will remain for several days.

In speaking of politics, he declared that his party would renominate Congressman C. Bascom Stemp as its candidate for Congress in the Ninth District at the convention to be held at Norton on July 30th.

"What about his chances of election?" "Well, that question is settled. I do not know what will be the course of the Democrats with reference to a nomination, but I do know that the district is strongly Republican, and we have about 5,000 the best of the Democrats on the question of paying poli taxes this year. Our voiers are paid up pretty well, and theirs are not. This is the whole story."

"Do you think Mr. Bryan stands achance?" asked The Times-Dispatch man.

"No more than I do," replied the Senator, "and I is m not running. Mr. Bryan may cheen the heave been recently going Sepublican, but have been recently going Sepublican, but have been recently going Sepublican my view, and Tatt will have an easy victory."

"How about the industrial conditions in Victory."

"How about the industrial conditions in the Southwest?"
